THE JEW THROUGH THE CENTURIES

By HERBERT L. WILLETT

is drawing tribute from Christians and Jews alike. One of America's outstanding Jewish leaders, Rabbi Rudolph I. Coffee, of Los Angeles, writing in "The Jewish Journal," says:

"The Jew Through the Centuries" is a most refreshing volume. Just when some brethren are criticizing the good will movement as lacking real heart among Christian supporters, this book offers the scientific studies of an impartial Christian scholar on several periods of Jewish history. Professor Herbert L. Willett combines a facile pen with scholarly presentation of facts. And he is honest. Only a deeply religious Christian would frankly state that 'Jesus or Joshua was born some five or six years before the beginning of the present era of parents named Joseph and Mary.'

"Such a man advances better understanding between Jew and Christian. Judaism to him is not an inferior faith but the mother religion of Western civilization. His splendid volume will reach Christian readers and portray to them the misunderstood Jew who has given so much to and received so little from humanity."

"The Jew Through the Centuries" should be in every Jewish library and made part of the prescribed reading of our post-graduate classes. It is a scholarly and just appraisal of the historic Jew."

Take Thought for the Religious Education of Your Youth

The 20th Century Quarterly

is just beginning its 15th year of publication. Its vigor, its timeliness, its understanding of the problems of modern youth and young adults, its direct and thoughtful study of the Bible itself, have given it first place among Quarterlies treating the International lessons.

Note its attractive departments, and its authoritative contributors

Clearing Up Difficult Points . . . . .	Herbert L. Willett, Jr.
At Grips With the Lesson . . . . .	Albert Buckner Coe
The Lesson Brought Down to Date . . . . .	John R. Ewers
Pointers . . . . .	Roy L. Smith
The Lesson Forum . . . . .	Stanley I. Stuber
The Prayer Thought . . . . .	John Timothy Stone
